

WELCOME, STUDENTS FROM GHANA

Founded in 1876, the University of Bristol has a global reputation for high-quality education and research.

Wide-ranging expertise

The University offers over 600 undergraduate and postgraduate degrees across a wide range of subjects.

An international community

Bristol is home to over 30,000 undergraduates and postgraduates. Around 28% of our students come from outside the UK.

We have around 15 students from Ghana currently studying here, and would love for you to join us.

A diverse city

Bristol is a friendly, vibrant place with a distinctive culture and rich history. Our multicultural city is home to people from more than 187 countries, speaking 91 languages.

A world of opportunities

You can celebrate cultural events, share experiences and connect with students from around the world at Bristol's Global Lounge.

Societies are another great way to meet like-minded friends and share your culture with others. Our 350+ student clubs include the African & Caribbean Society, International Students' Network and many more.

Inspirational alumni

Our international alumni network includes more than 120 graduates in Ghana. Past Bristol students are employed at organisations around the world.

English language requirements

If your first language is not English, you will need to show proof of your English language ability. We accept a wide range of qualifications and tests. Different courses need different English language levels. Specific requirements are listed on individual course pages online.

If you have studied at a Ghanaian high school or university, you will not usually need to provide additional evidence of your English language ability.

Scholarships

Our Think Big scholarship scheme supports international students from around the world. We are investing £3 million in University of Bristol scholarships for overseas students in 2024.

Other funding opportunities may be available from partners and sponsors.
