

WELCOME, STUDENTS FROM THAILAND

Founded in 1876, the University of Bristol has a global reputation for high-quality education and research.

Wide-ranging expertise

The University offers over 600 undergraduate and postgraduate degrees across a wide range of subjects.

An international community

Bristol is home to over 30,000 undergraduates and postgraduates. Around 28% of our students come from outside the UK.

We have around 140 students from Thailand currently studying here, and would love for you to join us.

A diverse city

Bristol is a friendly, vibrant place with a distinctive culture and rich history. Our multicultural city is home to people from more than 187 countries, speaking 91 languages. There is a range of shops and restaurants where Thai and other Southeast Asian food is available.

A world of opportunities

You can celebrate cultural events, share experiences and connect with students from around the world at Bristol's Global Lounge.

Societies are another great way to meet like-minded friends and share your culture with others. Our 350+ student clubs include the Thai Society, Asian Society, Muay Thai Society, International Students' Network and many more.

Inspirational alumni

Our international alumni network includes around 890 graduates in Thailand. Past Bristol students are employed at organisations including NECTEC, PTT, PwC, Thai Government, Bank of Thailand, The Quant Group and Honda.

University of BRISTOL

'I chose Bristol because of the feel of the city. The city centre and parks are so close to each other, you get the best of both worlds. Through the Thai Society, I have got to know many new people, helping me to settle in.'
