

Connie Sozi

Connie is a partner at London and Bristol based firm, Deighton Pierce Glynn Solicitors, a leading human rights legal practice.

She was called to the Bar in 2006 and qualified as a Solicitor in 2011.

Connie holds a doctorate in law from the University of London, funded under a Louise Arbour Scholarship awarded by the Institute of Commonwealth Studies. The PhD is a legal analysis of Kenya's indigenous communities' land rights under Kenya's 2010 Constitution, its attendant laws, the framework under the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights and the sub-region's East African Community Treaty. Connie obtained her LLB at London South Bank University; and a Master of Laws (LLM) in International Economic Law, Justice and Development from Birkbeck College, University of London.

She has appeared as guest lecturer on the MA in 'Understanding and Securing Human Rights' at the Institute of Commonwealth Studies and visiting lecturer on the LLM on 'Human Rights Litigation and Social Change' at Roehampton University.
