

Antimicrobial Stewardship | IMPROVING PRIMARY CARE FOR CHILDREN'S RESPIRATORY INFECTIONS

Friday 26 February 2016, Holiday Inn, Regent's Park, London

FULL PROGRAMME

(May be subject to change)

Time	Session
9.15am	Refreshments and registration
10.00am	Overview of antimicrobial resistance and national antimicrobial stewardship initiatives Dr Diane Ashiru-Oredope Pharmacist Lead for Antimicrobial Resistance and Stewardship at Public Health England
10.25am	Introduction to the NIHR-funded TARGET Programme Grant for Applied Research Prof Joe Kai, Chair Clinical Professor and Head of Primary Care, University of Nottingham Prof Alastair Hay, TARGET Programme Chief Investigator GP and Professor of Primary Care, Centre for Academic Primary Care, University of Bristol
10.40am	The parent perspective: What parents want from consultations for children with RTIs Dr Christie Cabral Research Fellow, Centre for Academic Primary Care, University of Bristol An interactive multimedia session followed by facilitated round table discussion
11.25am	Refreshment break
11.40am	The clinician perspective: Antibiotic prescribing decisions for children with RTIs Dr Jeremy Horwood Senior Research Fellow, Centre for Academic Primary Care, University of Bristol A short presentation followed by facilitated round table discussion
12.25pm	Morning round up and lunch
2.00pm	What interventions can help clinicians improve antibiotic prescribing? Prof Alastair Hay GP and Professor of Primary Care, Centre for Academic Primary Care, University of Bristol A short presentation followed by facilitated round table discussion
2.45pm	Panel question time: an opportunity to quiz the panel
3.05pm	Implementation Discussion and recommendations for how we implement the research findings
3.20pm	Final words and close, including refreshments, informal discussions and networking