Total score (possible 50):

This is not a Pass/Fail test. However, if your total score is less than 19 you need to consider revising the slides and other handouts, you may even decide to attend the event a second time as you have not assimilated the information given sufficiently. You are always welcome to contact the fire safety adviser to seek clarification on an issue you do not fully understand.

DON'T FORGET:

1. Fire warden refresher training is required after two years.
2. Book onto a fire extinguisher training course (annual refresher)
3. If you have passenger lifts in your building, consider working with the Facilities Manager to arrange evacuation chair training (you will need to practice regularly to become confident/competent).
