

Plain facts

Making life better for black people with learning difficulties

The ROOOTS team are African Caribbean people with learning difficulties.

The ROOOTS team wanted to understand more about racism.

Racism is when people are treated badly because they are black.

ROOOTS found out about racism and how to make services better for African Caribbean people with learning difficulties.

Lots of people are treated badly because they are black and have learning difficulties.

There are lots of different ways to learn about black history and the way black people live.

ROOOTS use lots of different ways to tell other people about our lives.

ROOOTS supports other organisations to change. They want them to make their services better for black people with learning difficulties.