

Accommodation guarantee

The University guarantees an offer of accommodation for the first year of study to all undergraduates who apply by the deadline provided that they:

- have firmly accepted an offer of study at Bristol,
- are coming to study at Bristol for the first time,
- are unaccompanied (i.e. without dependant family members, spouses or partners).

The guarantee does not apply to students who:

- miss the application deadline,
- have not firmly accepted their offer of study by the deadline,
- have previously studied at the University of Bristol.

The guarantee does not apply to students who:

- miss the application deadline,
- have not firmly accepted their offer of study by the deadline, including insurance, clearing adjustment students,
- have previously studied at the University of Bristol,
- are Study Abroad or Erasmus students.
[<http://www.bristol.ac.uk/accommodation/undergraduate/placements.html#dropdown-heading0-3>]

Important information for prospective students

The Accommodation Guarantee will be withdrawn if any applicant has not met the terms of their offer of study by 31 August.

We may make you an offer for a room that is not in one of our advertised residences. Occasionally we need to offer temporary accommodation or a place in a room shared with another student.