

Morgan Scholarship

Thanks to the continuing generosity of Neill and Catrin Morgan, the Institute of Greece, Rome and the Classical Tradition at the University of Bristol will be able to offer an MPhil scholarship of £8,300 in 2016/17 for a student working on any topic in the ancient Greco-Roman world or its reception.

The scholarship will be offered to a student who has been accepted for a one-year MPhil or for the first year of a PhD.

Details of the award are as follows:

1 x Home/EU fee cover

This award is open to full-time and part-time, Home/EU and Overseas applicants. Overseas applicants may use the amount as part payment of their tuition fees.

Apply

To be considered, you must have received an offer of a place at the University of Bristol and accepted it by Monday 2 May 2016. If you have already applied to Bristol for Masters study, you will automatically be considered, and do not need to apply again.
