KEYNOTE SPEECH

THURSDAY 13:30 - 14.30

An overview of sustainability reporting

In his keynote speech, Professor Barker will conceptualize the emergent practice of sustainability reporting. He will address important questions, such as: Why report on sustainability? How is sustainability reporting related to financial accounting? What makes sustainability disclosures useful and impactful?

Richard Barker

Richard is a member of the International Sustainability Standards Board. An expert in corporate reporting, his research and teaching interests span financial accounting and sustainability reporting. Before joining the ISSB, Richard served as deputy dean and professor of accounting at Saïd Business School, University of Oxford. In this capacity, he led Oxford Saïd's sustainable business initiatives.

ISSB UPDATE

FRIDAY 11:30 - 12:30

An update on recent ISSB sustainability developments

Caroline Bridges

Caroline is Technical Director, Connectivity and Integrated Reporting, a continuation of the role she held at the IIRC. She has been working towards the transition to a comprehensive corporate reporting system with other international frameworks and standard setters.

A TRIBUTE TO PROFESSOR MIKE JONES

FRIDAY 13:30 - 14:00

This panel will recognize the contribution of Professor Michael John Jones to the foundation of the FRBC, to the first 25 conferences and to the accounting discipline in the UK and internationally.

Rhoda Brown

Rhoda Brown originally qualified as a chartered accountant with Deloitte, and has since worked, for over 30 years, in various UK universities, teaching advanced financial reporting, financial statement analysis, accounting theory and research methods. Her research interests are eclectic: her PhD was on the regulatory and economic consequences of accounting policy choice and she is currently writing about the development process for public sector accounting standards.

Richard Slack

Richard's research encompasses practice-relevant issues in areas of accounting information, sustainability and ethics. Specifically, Richard is interested in the way information is disclosed by companies and whether such disclosure (both voluntary such as climate change and environmental reporting or mandatory such as reporting for intangibles under International Accounting Standards) is useful, or not, to capital market users.
