

MAXIMUM CLASSICS

3-term Classics course (33 sessions) incorporating

- Foundation Latin language
- Classical civilisation & culture including art, science, maths and philosophy

Aristotle's 'middle path' to being good too little	just right	too much cowardly	brave	Rash

Selfish	generous	spoiling
cold	friendly	either annoying or can't respect others' privacy/Intimidate braggy	modest	"Too down on yourself/low self-esteem"
characterless	witty	"you don't know when to stop"

Easy to deploy

- all plans, worksheets and materials online
- comprehensive teacher guide
- modular and flexible - can be tailored to suit lesson length or curricular aims

"You don't need to know Latin, it only takes 15-20 minutes of preparation for each lesson."

EAL and SEN students fully engage... They participate enthusiastically in all activities

Accessible for all abilities

- inclusive teaching through games and song
- differentiated exercises
- group work and discussion

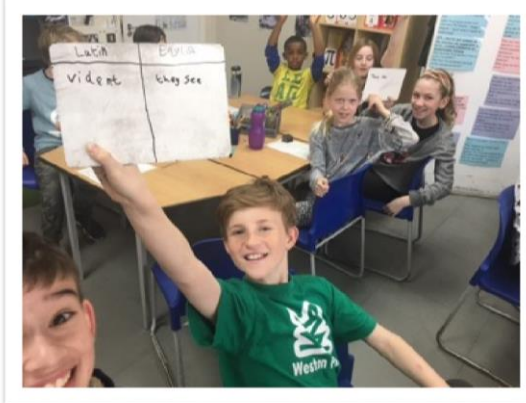

MAXIMUM CLASSICS

Designed to support KS2 curriculum

- grammar and grammatical terminology aligned with KS2 English curriculum
- emphasis on etymology: Latin vocabulary chosen for links to English words
- explicit emphasis on grammar creates secure foundation for future MFL learning
- cultural activities align with KS2 aims for science, art, design, maths and history

Part 1: Sort the verbs in the word cloud below into the correct boxes: past, present or future.

PAST	present	FUTURE
it was raining ✓ I ran ✓ can you see? ✓ he is going to help ✓ I will try ✓ he gave up ✓ I was running ✓ we were walking ✓	can you see? ✓	I will try ✓ he is going to help ✓ they will eat ✓

- All online resources free to download
- Training pre-funded by Classics for All (c.4 hours for Term 1, <3 hours for subsequent terms)
- Training can be delivered in-school

Case study: St Mary's Church of England Primary N8

I did not know any Latin to begin with but now I feel confident after minimal training.

One-term teaching of Latin and Classics extended to one year due to success and popularity

The students love Latin and look forward to each lesson

It is great fun. Interesting, very easy and accessible lessons, great pace..., interactive and accessible to all levels.