

Day Conference

University of Bristol Research Centre for International and Comparative Studies (ICS), Graduate School of Education and the Council for Education in the Commonwealth (CEC)

Monday 25 October 2010, 12:00 to 16:30

Educational Policies and Priorities in Commonwealth Small States

This day conference is for those interested in education in the small states of the Commonwealth, in comparative and international studies and in the Commonwealth in general.

Presentations will report on research findings from a study of educational policies and priorities in Commonwealth small states to be published in 2010 by the Commonwealth Secretariat.

The day will celebrate Commonwealth decadal anniversaries for the small states of Namibia, Samoa, Tonga and Vanuatu.

For more information: www.smallstates.net, and www.cecomm.org.uk or contact Valerie Davey valeriedaveybr@yahoo.co.uk, or 0117.909.3491

Register by Thursday, 21 October:

Registration forms available on websites above.

The £10 registration fee is payable by cheque to 'CEC', mailed to Valerie Davey, 29 Norton Road, Bristol BS4 2EZ or by prior arrangement on the day by cash or cheque.

- ◆ Registration and Buffet Lunch 12-13:00
- ◆ Chair, Valerie Davey, Executive Chair, CEC
- ◆ Research findings presented by Professor Michael Crossley AcSS, Steve Packer, Terra Sprague
- ◆ Panel invited from the High Commissions of Namibia, Samoa, Tonga and Vanuatu, as well as Commonwealth Scholars from small states will respond to the research findings.

Venue:
University of Bristol
Graduate School of Education
Berkeley Conference Suite

Helen Wodehouse Building,
35 Berkeley Square,
Clifton, Bristol BS8 1JA, UK