

Department of History: Past Events

Seminar Programme 2003/04

Autumn Term 2003

Date	Event
16 October	Virginia Davis (Queen Mary and Westfield), 'Writing Medieval Ecclesiastical Biography: William of Wykeham' Centre for Medieval Studies - 5.15pm, Lecture Room 1
21 October	New research students: introductory presentations - 4.15pm, G77

22 October	'ENVISAGING HEAVEN' SEMINAR Prof. Peter Dronke (Universities of Cambridge and Florence): 'The Idea of Completeness of Heaven in Medieval Thought' Contact Ad Putter, Department of English, 3-5 Woodland Road A.D.Putter@bristol.ac.uk Centre for Medieval Studies - 2.15pm, Lecture Theatre 1
4 November	Huw Bowen (Leicester), 'Monopoly and Privilege: Reassessing Britain's Export Trade to India, 1700-1813' Colonial Worlds - 4.15pm, G77
6 November	David Humphrey (Royal College of Art), 'The Role of Jewels and Jewellery at the Courts of Philip the Bold and John the Fearless, Valois Dukes of Burgundy' Centre for Medieval Studies - 5.15pm, Lecture Rm 1
18 November	Kirsty Reid (Bristol), 'Family Matters: Settler Colonialism, Domesticity and Power' Colonial Worlds - 4.15pm, G77

20 November	University of Bristol Inaugural Lecture: David Hook 'From the Persians to Pelayo: Recurrent Narrative Elements in some Classical and Medieval Texts' Centre for Medieval Studies - 5.15pm, Lecture Th. 3
25 November	Jo Duffy (Bristol) 'Kultuur Reclaimed: Afrikaner Nationalist Politics and the Stellenbosch District (South Africa), 1934-1939' Colonial Worlds - 4.15pm, G77
26 November	HALF-DAY CONFERENCE: 'When did the Middle Ages begin and end?' Contact Elizabeth Archibald, Dept of English, 3/5 Woodland Road, Bristol, BS8 1TBmailto: E.Archibald@bris.ac.uk Centre for Medieval Studies - 2.00pm, Lecture Theatre 1
2 December	David Omissi (Hull), "'Think this Over Until You Understand It": Censorship and Communication in the Correspondence of Indian Soldiers in France, 1914-18' Colonial Worlds - 4.15pm, G77
4 December	James Clark (University of Bristol), 'Monastic Reading in Late Medieval England' Centre for Medieval Studies - 5.15pm, Lecture Room 1

Spring Term 2004

20 January

Peter Pope (Memorial Newfoundland) 'Remembering the 17th-Century English Shore: Historical Archaeology Challenges the Myth of Retarded Colonization in Newfoundland' Colonial Worlds - 4.15pm, G77, 15 Woodland Road

27 January

Dr Andy Wood (UEA) 'History, Social Memory and the Representation of the 1549 Rebellions' Texts and Transmissions - 4.15pm, G77, 15 Woodland Road

3 February

Philip Schofield (UCL) 'Constructing the Texts, Inventing the Canon: The New Bentham Edition' Texts and Transmissions - 4.15pm, G77, 15 Woodland Road

5 February

Alfred Hiatt (University of Leeds), Centre for Medieval Studies - 5.15pm, Lecture Room 1, 3-5 Woodland Road

17 February	Dr John Connor, Sir Robert Menzies Centre for Australian Studies (University of London) 'Historians at War over Warfare: The Australian Frontier 1788-1838' Colonial Worlds - 4.15pm, G77, 15 Woodland Road
18 February	HALF-DAY CONFERENCE: 'John Smyth: A Sixteenth-Century Bristol Merchant in Poetry and History' Centre for Medieval Studies - 2.15pm, Lecture Theatre 1, 3-5 Woodland Road
21 & 22 February	POST-GRADUATE CONFERENCE: 'Enclosure and Escape in the Middle Ages' Centre for Medieval Studies
24 February	Prof. Anne Hudson (Oxford), 'The Implications of Collaboration in the History of Medieval Texts' Texts and Transmissions - 4.15pm, G77, 15 Woodland Road

2 March	Dr Lesley Smith (Oxford), 'The Implications of Collaboration 2: St Jacques and the Dominican Dominance of Medieval Exegesis' Texts and Transmissions - 4.15pm, G77, 15 Woodland Road
3 March	'ENVISAGING HEAVEN' SEMINAR Dr Robin Kirkpatrick (University of Cambridge), 'Representing Heaven in the Divina Commedia' Contact Ad Putter, Department of English, 3-5 Woodland Road, Email: A.D.Putter@bristol.ac.uk Centre for Medieval Studies - 5.15pm, Lecture Theatre 1, 3-5 Woodland Road
9 March	Dr Adam Fox (Edinburgh) Title to be announced Texts and Transmissions - 4.15pm, G77, 15 Woodland Road
16 March	Dr Davide Gualerzi (Pisa), 'Consumption and Economic Development in the United States (1980s)' - 4.15pm, G77, 15 Woodland Road

18 March

Professor Elaine Treharne (University of Leicester), 'The Vice and Folly of the English, c. 1070-1170' Centre for Medieval Studies - 5.15pm, Lecture Room1, 3-5 Woodland Road

Summer Term 2004

29 April

Daron Burrows (University of Manchester), 'The Abuse of Excommunication in Thirteenth-Century France' Centre for Medieval Studies - 5.15pm, Lecture Room1, 3-5 Woodland Road

4 May

James Raven To be confirmed
Texts and Transmissions - 4.15pm, G77, 15 Woodland Road

\(Back to top\)