

WELCOME, STUDENTS FROM BANGLADESH

Founded in 1876, the University of Bristol has a global reputation for high-quality education and research.

Wide-ranging expertise

The University offers around 600 undergraduate and postgraduate degrees across a wide range of subjects.

An international community

Bristol is home to over 30,000 undergraduates and postgraduates. Nearly 33% of our students come from outside the UK.

We have around 20 students from Bangladesh currently studying here, and would love for you to join us.

A diverse city

Bristol is a friendly, vibrant place with a distinctive culture and rich history. Our multicultural city is home to people from more than 185 countries, speaking 90 languages. There is a range of shops and restaurants where Bangladeshi and other South Asian food is available.

A world of opportunities

You can celebrate cultural events, share experiences and connect with students from around the world at Bristol's Global Lounge.

Societies are another great way to meet like-minded friends and share your culture with others. Our 350+ student clubs include Asian Society, Bangla Society and many more.

Bristol Students' Union runs regular events, starting from Welcome Week, for you to find friends and build your community.

Inspirational alumni

Our international alumni network includes more than 70 graduates in Bangladesh. Past Bristol students are employed at organisations including the University of Dhaka, the National Institute of Ophthalmology, the University of Rajshahi and Yunus Centre.

'The University provided me with the necessary knowledge, skills and support to progress in my career. Both the teachers and support services provided guidance whenever I needed help. It is an experience that I will cherish for the rest of my life.'
