

WELCOME, STUDENTS FROM NORWAY

Founded in 1876, the University of Bristol has a global reputation for high-quality education and research.

Wide-ranging expertise

The University offers around 600 undergraduate and postgraduate degrees across a wide range of subjects.

An international community

Bristol is home to over 30,000 undergraduates and postgraduates. Nearly 33% of our students come from outside the UK.

We have around 20 students from Norway currently studying here, and would love for you to join us.

A diverse city

Bristol is a friendly, vibrant place with a distinctive culture and rich history. Our multicultural city is home to people from more than 185 countries, speaking 90 languages.

A world of opportunities

You can celebrate cultural events, share experiences and connect with students from around the world at Bristol's Global Lounge.

Societies are another great way to meet like-minded friends and share your culture with others. Our 350+ student clubs include Nordic Society and many more.

Bristol Students' Union runs regular events, starting from Welcome Week, for you to find friends and build your community.

Inspirational alumni

Our international alumni network includes around 300 graduates in Norway. Past Bristol students are employed at organisations including Schlumberger Ltd, Kongsberg Defence and Aerospace, Research Council of Norway, Cisco and the United Nations.

'The diversity among students and staff and the experiences and perspectives from many corners of the world are a huge benefit both socially and academically.'
