

WELCOME, STUDENTS FROM TAIWAN

Founded in 1876, the University of Bristol has a global reputation for high-quality education and research.

Wide-ranging expertise

The University offers around 600 undergraduate and postgraduate degrees across a wide range of subjects.

An international community

Bristol is home to over 30,000 undergraduates and postgraduates. Nearly 33% of our students come from outside the UK.

We have nearly 100 students from Taiwan currently studying here, and would love for you to join us.

A diverse city

Bristol is a friendly, vibrant place with a distinctive culture and rich history. Our multicultural city is home to people from more than 185 countries, speaking 90 languages. There is a range of shops and restaurants where Taiwanese and other East Asian food is available.

A world of opportunities

You can celebrate cultural events, share experiences and connect with students from around the world at Bristol's Global Lounge.

Societies are another great way to meet like-minded friends and share your culture with others. Our 350+ student clubs include Taiwanese Society, Asian Society and many more.

Bristol Students' Union runs regular events, starting from Welcome Week, for you to find friends and build your community.

Inspirational alumni

Our international alumni network includes more than 1,000 graduates in Taiwan. Past Bristol students are employed at organisations including the Taiwanese Government, IBM Taiwan, Warner Brothers, Allianz, Samsung, Realtek, Cathay United Bank, American Express, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Dell, Global Investors and a range of prestigious universities.

'Bristol is special for its rich history, vibrant cultural scene and creative energy. The University helped me settle in with helpful orientation programmes, personalised support for visas and housing, and fun social events. With excellent teaching, resources, and an active student community, Bristol provides an unparalleled student experience.'
