

Welcome, students from Singapore

Founded in 1876, the University of Bristol has a global reputation for high-quality education and research.

Wide-ranging expertise

The University offers around 600 undergraduate and postgraduate degrees across a wide range of subjects.

An international community

Bristol is home to over 30,000 undergraduates and postgraduates. Over 33% of our students come from outside the UK.

We have more than 350 students from Singapore currently studying here, and would love for you to join us.

A diverse city

Bristol is a friendly, vibrant place with a distinctive culture and rich history. Our multicultural city is home to people from more than 185 countries, speaking 90 languages. There is a range of shops and restaurants where Southeast Asian food is available.

A world of opportunities

You can celebrate cultural events, share experiences and connect with students from around the world at Bristol's Global Lounge.

Societies are another great way to meet like-minded friends and share your culture with others. Our 350+ student clubs include Malaysian and Singaporean Students' Association, Asian Society and many more.

Bristol Students' Union runs regular events, starting from Welcome Week, for you to find friends and build your community.

Inspirational alumni

Our international alumni network includes more than 1,300 graduates in Singapore. Past Bristol students are employed at organisations including the Ministry of Health, Bank of Singapore, National Environment Agency (NEA), Netflix, Google, Singapore Airlines and legal firms including WongPartnership LLP.

'Bristol is a unique city filled with lots of street art that represents the city's vibrant community. It is very different from coming from a country filled with skyscrapers, and I appreciate the beautiful architecture the city has to offer. There is an easy sense of belonging and peace in Bristol that just can't be explained through words.'
