

Open Access Deals

The library has arranged many “read and publish” deals with publishers. These deals cover the gold open access fees for corresponding authors from the University of Bristol, at no additional cost per article.

You can use this route if:

- The corresponding author is from the University of Bristol
- Your journal shows up in the library’s database:
<https://www.bristol.ac.uk/staff/researchers/open-access/read--publish--transformative-deals/>
- Your output is an original research paper journal article

Letters to the editor, editorials, book reviews, case study etc. are not covered by our deals. We are only able to cover protocols for Wellcome Trust funded authors.
