

Information sheet MSc by Research (MScR) degree.

School of Physiology, Pharmacology and Neuroscience

Not sure whether you want to commit to a 3-4 year PhD programme? Or would you like to make your CV more competitive with some solid research experience?

An MSC by Research may be the postgraduate program for you!

FAQs:

What does it involve?

10 months in the lab, plus 2 months to write up (submission deadline 2 years after start)

When does it start?

At the start of the academic year in September 2021

How much does it cost?

Fees for 2021/22 are £4,475 UK (For EU and overseas £23,900) plus bench fees (generally £5.000, depending on lab)

<https://www.bristol.ac.uk/students/updates/brexit-information-for-current-students/fees-and-funding/>

Can I get a student loan?

Yes! The government provides a loan up to £10.000.

<http://www.bristol.ac.uk/fees-funding/postgraduate/pg-loans/>

How do I find a placement?

Decide what kind of research you are interested in and contact the potential supervisor directly (see <http://www.bristol.ac.uk/phys-pharm-neuro/people-new/>).

Example projects available in the School of PPN can be found here:

<http://www.bristol.ac.uk/media-library/sites/phys-pharm-neuro/documents/MScR%20Self-funded%20projects%20PPN%202021.pdf>

How do I apply?

When you find a host lab, please apply through the following website:

<http://www.bristol.ac.uk/study/postgraduate/apply/>

PGR timelines: A typical MSc(Research)

