

University of
BRISTOL

Poverty Dimensions of COVID-19 in the UK

Bristol Poverty Institute Webinars

Thursday 11 June 2020 14:00-16:00

@bristolpoverty

#COVID19Poverty

bristol.ac.uk/poverty-institute

University of
BRISTOL

Speakers

Professor David Gordon, Bristol Poverty Institute Director and Professor of Social Justice, University of Bristol
Poverty and COVID-19 in the UK

Mr Thomas Croft, National Coordinator for ATD Fourth World UK
Digital exclusion, multidimensional poverty and COVID-19

Professor Sharon Collard, Research Director of Personal Finance Research Centre, University of Bristol
The impact of COVID-19 on financial wellbeing

Mr Ben Carpenter, Youth and Community worker in Bristol and founder of Grassroot Communities CIC
Opportunities in South Bristol

Chair/Moderator

Dr Lauren Winch, Bristol Poverty Institute Manager, University of Bristol

bristol.ac.uk/poverty-institute

University of
BRISTOL

Many thanks to all speakers and participants

For more information on the Bristol Poverty Institute please find us at:

bristol.ac.uk/poverty-institute

@bristolpoverty

bristol-poverty-institute@bristol.ac.uk

